

Holypalooza is Sunday, September 11

The 4th annual Holypalooza is September 11. This is a moment when the 7th Street churches come together for a joint worship service (10am at Centenary United Methodist Church; NO SERVICE AT CPC THIS MORNING) followed by a barbeque lunch at Centenary supporting United Campus Ministries. We also welcome gatherers at 9:30am for a parade down the length of our collective 7th Street frontage. Finally, it is a tradition that we make the event in part about service to the community. We have three ways you can help:

- Bring items for personal hygiene packs (for needy college students through the United Campus Ministries Food Pantry and for the homeless). We will package them at St. Stephens after the Holypalooza service. Come before or after your lunch to help, or bring your lunch over and help. Meet some new friends this way!
- Bring items for area food pantries (UCM Food Pantry and others; hunger needs are extensive in Terre Haute).
- Sign up to participate in/be a volunteer for the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure (Oct. 8). Signups will occur after the Holypalooza service.

The list of suggested items is below. You can bring donations to CPC before Holypalooza or to St. Stephens on Holypalooza itself.
